

FOURTH DISTRICT.

Cass. Marion. Bowie. Morris. and Titus counties: Bowie the returning county.—John Atlas Peacock, of Daingerfield, Morris county, was born in Titus county, Texas, November 23, 1845; educated in private schools; was alderman of the town of Daingerfield, in 1870; elected justice of the peace, assessor of taxes, and county commissioner, respectively, under the Constitution of 1869, and county judge of Morris county after that county was organized, in 1875; elected county attorney in 1876, and re-elected in 1878, resigning that office in 1879; elected Representative to the Seventeenth Legislature from the Eleventh District, as a Democrat, in 1880, over A. H. Cox, Dr. W. L. Leake, and Alfred Emmett, Greenback nominees, and J. H. Culberson, Independent Democrat; elected State Senator from the Fourth District as the Democratic nominee, in 1882, receiving 4578 votes against 3178 for James H. Culberson, Independent. Term expires November, 1886.